

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

GREGORY B. CRAIG,

Defendant.

Case No. 1:19-cr-0125 (ABJ)

NOTICE

On July 11, 2019, Defendant Gregory B. Craig filed an Opposition to the Government's Motion In Limine to Exclude Claims of Selective Prosecution or Enforcement, or Seeking Jury Nullification. ECF 55. In that Opposition, Defendant highlighted the fact that, "to date, neither [Jonathan] Hawker nor FTI has filed a registration statement under FARA based on their preparation and implementation of the media plan" for the release of the Skadden report. Id. at 2.

The following day, July 12, 2019, FTI registered under FARA in connection with its work on the Skadden report, and Mr. Hawker filed a short-form registration statement alongside FTI's submission. See Ex. 1 (Amendment to Registration Statement, filed July 12, 2019)¹; Ex. 2 (Exhibits A & B to Registration Statement, filed July 12, 2019); Ex. 3 (Short Form Registration Statement of Jonathan Hawker, filed July 12, 2019).² This was done one month before the trial in this case is scheduled to begin, well over six years after the release of the Skadden report.

¹ FTI filed an "amendment" because it was already a registered agent of other foreign principals. Friday's submission is the first time that FTI has registered as an agent of Ukraine in connection with its work on the Skadden report.

² FTI also furnished a copy of the Skadden report to the FARA Unit as "informational material" under 22 U.S.C. § 614(a).

The fact that FTI and Mr. Hawker have now registered under FARA in connection with their work on the Skadden report – apparently under pressure from the government in the lead-up to this trial – does not change Mr. Craig’s position that any explicit or implicit agreements with or assurances to Mr. Hawker are permissible grounds for cross-examination. Indeed, these developments only highlight why such a line of inquiry should be allowed.

Dated: July 15, 2019

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at <https://www.fara.gov>.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: <https://www.fara.gov>. Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .33 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

1. Name of Registrant

FTI Consulting LLP

2. Registration No.

6569

3. Name of Foreign Principal

Government of Ukraine, Office of Prosecutor General

Check Appropriate Box:

4. ☐ The agreement between the registrant and the above-named foreign principal is a formal written contract. If this box is checked, attach a copy of the contract to this exhibit.
5. ☐ There is no formal written contract between the registrant and the foreign principal. The agreement with the above-named foreign principal has resulted from an exchange of correspondence. If this box is checked, attach a copy of all pertinent correspondence, including a copy of any initial proposal which has been adopted by reference in such correspondence.
6. ☒ The agreement or understanding between the registrant and the foreign principal is the result of neither a formal written contract nor an exchange of correspondence between the parties. If this box is checked, give a complete description below of the terms and conditions of the oral agreement or understanding, its duration, the fees and expenses, if any, to be received.

7. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

In May 2012, FTI agreed to provide strategic communications services on behalf of the Ukrainian Office of the Prosecutor General ("OPG"). There was no executed written engagement for the project. There was a verbal understanding among the parties involved that the services being provided by FTI were on behalf of the OPG as FTI's client. FTI received a flat fee of 90,000 GBP per month from May 2012 through December 2012, with the exception of October 2012 for which FTI received a fee of 110,000 GBP. These fees were received by wire transfer from Black Sea View Ltd. to FTI. The understanding included reimbursement of FTI's expenses, but such reimbursement was never made. FTI provided no services to OPG after December 2012.

8. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

Beginning in May 2012, FTI's UK-based media relations team provided strategic communications services related to the release of a report (the "Report") that was being prepared by Skadden Arps regarding the evidence and procedures used during the 2011 prosecution of former Prime Minister Yulia Tymoshenko. Specifically, FTI was tasked with developing a global media strategy and content for the release of the Report, and disseminating the Report to media contacts in the European Union ("EU") and the Ukraine. At the time of the engagement, it was contemplated that the global media strategy and content would be utilized in the U.S. and disseminated there by entities other than FTI. In addition to FTI's activities in the EU and the Ukraine regarding the Report, a UK-based FTI employee participated in certain activities within the U.S. or involving U.S. entities. Specifically, in September 2012, this FTI employee participated in a media strategy planning session in the U.S. that included discussion of the distribution of the report in the U.S. The Report was released publicly on December 13, 2012. Over the course of December 12-13, 2012, the FTI employee had communications with members of the U.S. media, directly and indirectly, for the purpose of distributing the Report and related information.

9. Will the activities on behalf of the above foreign principal include political activities as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act and in the footnote below? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose.

See response to Question 8 above.

EXECUTION

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746, the undersigned swears or affirms under penalty of perjury that he/she has read the information set forth in this Exhibit B to the registration statement and that he/she is familiar with the contents thereof and that such contents are in their entirety true and accurate to the best of his/her knowledge and belief.
